PERFECT PIRATES

Today's theme is all about pirates! Pirates lived life on the open seas with their mates. They sailed their ships and had lots of adventures! Pirates attacked other pirates for their treasures. And some pirates even took each others ships! They traveled sea to sea with odd pets like parrots, ferrets, and more. Pirates were not to be messed with.

Today's fun includes a puzzle to decode a pirate's hidden message, an activity to make your own treasure map, and an activity to write your own pirate tale!

Blackbeard's Message

Ahoy Matey! Pirates had lots of secrets. Pirates wrote in code to make sure their messages couldn't be read by any landlubbers. Use the pirate code below to decipher the hidden message!

Pirate Treasure Hunt

Pirates kept their treasures in safe places. That way their treasures couldn't be stolen! Pirates usually kept their treasures on secret islands, in secret caves, and in hidden chests. No pirate could ever be too careful! Sometimes pirates were too careful and they forgot where they hid their treasures! That is why they needed treasure clues. Pirates also gave their matey's clues so they could find the treasure too! Use the instructions below to create your own treasure hunt.

- 1. Take your treasure and hide it in your tip top secret treasure spot. You can put your treasure in a box before hiding it in your spot. This spot should be under furniture, under a bush, behind a stuffed animal, or anywhere else another pirate would not easily find it.
- 2. Write out 5-10 clues for your treasure hunt. The answer to the clue should lead your matey to a landmark. If your clue is, "I have four legs, but I don't have feet. I come in handy when it's time to eat." then the next clue should be found at the dinner table. You can get creative and write your own clues, or you can use some of the clues on the next page!
- 3. Have your matey sit in another room or close their eyes while you set up the clues.
- 4. When you finish give your matey the first clue so they can start the treasure hunt!
